To All Our Pupils:

I want to give you all a gentle reminder that you are very precious to us!

As you start back to “school” tomorrow, remember that all the staff and I are thinking of you and wishing you well! We miss you all so much but we can still work together!

Remember a Scoil Mhuire Girl is good, is kind and works hard.

Do the best that you can do and be the best that you can be.

Your teachers and I understand that there will be days when you will not be able to do, or finish, your work. That’s ok. We trust you. You know that we will always be happy once you have done your best.

I hope that you’ll remember it’s important to go to bed at the proper time and to be up, washed, dressed, fed and ready for “school” in the mornings.

Start your school day with a silent prayer, giving thanks for all we have and remembering those who are sick, lonely or sad.

Remember to get plenty of fresh air and exercise every day.

Be kind to your parents. Help them by being independent and by working on your own as best you can. Remember to tell them how much you love them!

Continue to practise good hygiene: wash your hands, sneeze and cough into your arm and keep 2m apart from people you meet. Isn’t it wonderful to know that, by doing this, we have already helped to save the lives of hundreds of people!

I look forward to talking to you soon and to seeing the work that you’re doing.

So, get a good night’s sleep and start tomorrow bright-eyed and bushy-tailed!

Missing you so much and thinking of you,

Mrs. Murphy
